Order appointing counsel

Mr. Todd Giffen is a petitioner proceeding in forma pauperis in a Habeas Corpus under Section 2241. The court previously error'd by denying the motion for counsel by finding that Petitioner faced no loss of liberty in the case, and that there was no "interests of justice ... at the present time" to warrant appointment of counsel. In the current motion to appoint counsel and in the original Writ of Habeas Corpus petition and exhibits, Petitioner points out with evidence how he has lived with risk of daily death and loss of life and limb beyond repair, including murder attempts, torture, as inflicted by the Respondents/Defendants thus proving substantial deprivation of liberty and justice, and qualifying himself for counsel under 18 U.S. Code § 3006A (a)(1)(I) and 18 U.S. Code § 3006A (a)(2)(B).

The Petitioner also requested counsel to provide oversight of court functions to prevent the court from further violating or endangering the Petitioner or in acting deliberately or negligently against him.

It is so ordered, the petitioner be appointed attorney _____ immediately by the court pursuant to 18 U.S. Code § 3006A (a)(1)(I) and 18 U.S. Code § 3006A (a)(2)(B) to assist the Petitioner in regaining his liberty and to aid the court in pursuing justice.
